AND IN ADDITION -

Throughout the weekend singers, dancers and musicians will be performing by invitation at old people's homes and the local hospital. Moreover, with or without invitation they will certainly strike up anywhere they get half a chance. So keep your eyes and ears open for impromptu happenings, especially when you pass a pub! THANKS VERY MUCH FOR COMING! HOPE TO SEE YOU NEXT JUNE!

SOUTH PETHERTON PROUDLY PRESENTS -

The Bully Wee Band have made a tremendous impact on audiences in half a dozen continental countries as well as throughout Britain, in live performances, on record and on the air... The Hurley International Dancers hail from Winchester but lend an exotic touch with Romanian, Albanian and other Balkan dances... Roy Harris, who is better than almost anyone at getting an audience to sing along, comes here after bookings as far apart as Edinburgh and San Diego, USA... The Seymour Dancers from Totnes, with Eric Langford, are especially welcome for their stately, courtly Playford style... Joy Hyman has travelled the world not only singing but collecting songs, and offers us a repertoire embracing thirty-two languages! ... Dawnsyr Tawerin come from Swansea, bringing with them a splendid cross-section of the dance-heritage of Wales... The Somerville Gentlemen's Band will be remembered from last year as the talented accompanists of the most electrified skeleton in the business... Carafon ***SCOOP*** are a group of young French musicians making their first (but surely not their last) visit to a British folk festival... Dominic Patten is not only a fine singer but also the moving spirit behind the Malt Shovel Folk Club at Cannington... Butterfingers has re-formed specially for this festival... John & Sue Holman were a great hit at SP's Bell Folk Club... The Enfield Mummers impressed us all last year and will again

NOT JUST DURING THE FESTIVAL -

Many of the singers you can hear this weekend appear regularly at the Bell folk club along with resident group White Cockade, such as Fred and Andy, Colin Taylor, Phil George, Mike Bolton, Cheryl Underhill, John Wheeler, Paul Jay [from Pittsburgh, USA], and plenty more.

Westland Folk Club meets on alternate Tuesdays at the Westland Sports & Social Club in Yeovil. Strawfolk run their club at the Black Swan, Civic Centre, Shepton Mallet, on Wednesdays. For country music fans, Denver Spur are resident at the Smokestack Club, Clive Hotel, Wellington, on Tuesdays. And there are dance-clubs, too.

For folk-dancers: in South Petherton, the Arts Centre alternate Wednesdays; in Crewkerne Church Hall on Thursdays; Yeovil, Tuesdays at the Deaf-&-Dumb Centre, Addlewell Lane; Combe St Nicholas alternate Thursdays, Village Hall; Hambridge, 1st-3rd Tuesdays, Church Hall; Huish Episcopi, 1st Thursdays, Lower School Hall; Bickenhall, 2nd-4th Tuesdays, Neroche Hall; Taunton, Mondays, North Town School [all generally at 8 p.m.]

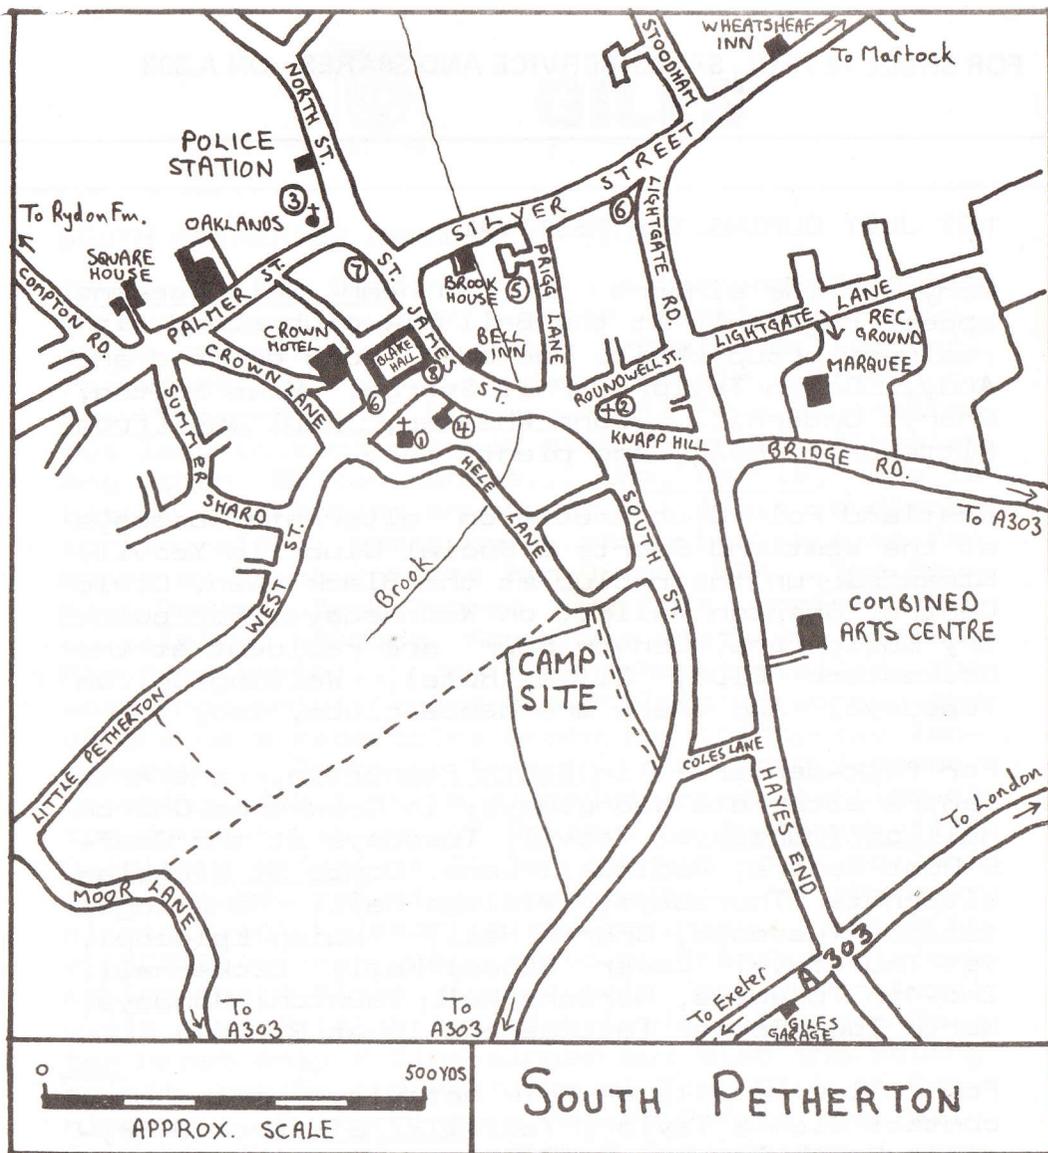

For fuller details of folk activity in the area contact Glenis Taylor, Yeovil 27761; Archie Bryden, South Petherton 40469; or Dev Ceverill at any Sunday evening session of the Bell Folk Club
